Profile

I am a perfectionist, committed and proactive person who enjoys facing challenges and doing new things. Driven by constant curiosity and an eagerness to learn, I use internet and software on a daily basis to do research and develop relationships with people from foreign countries. After graduating from Business Administration and been working in a technology enterprise for the last year, I'm currently looking for a new opportunity to expand my industry knowledge as well as to initiate myself in the fields of Product Management and Digital Marketing.
